

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing with concern of losing my national/regional K-LOVE radio service. This is a family source of communication that has no equal across the spectrum in my community. I travel quite a bit and look forward to reaching my station throughout the country. This is a positive and encouraging source of music and information for many people and would be a tremendous loss. Thank you for your time and consideration on this matter. Sincerely, Jeff Ohman